

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana telephone privacy law protections.
We have been on the Indiana No-Call List since it was implemented and have had litterly no calls since that time!!
Indiana's privacy law really works!!